

Common Birds Around School and Home

Black-capped Chickadee

Year-round resident

Red-breasted Nuthatch

Year-round resident

Hairy Woodpecker

Year-round resident

Downy Woodpecker

Year-round resident

Black-billed Magpie

Year-round resident

Common Raven

Year-round resident

Bohemian Waxwing

Fall – Winter – Spring

Breeds north in the interior

Common Redpoll

Year-round resident

Pine Grosbeak

Smaller breeding population with most breeding farther north in the interior

Fall – Winter – Spring

American Robin

Small resident population, most winter in lower 48

Spring – Summer – Fall

Violet-green Swallow

Late April through July

Winters in Central America

White-crowned Sparrow

Winters in lower 48

Late April through early September

Dark-eyed Junco

Most winter in lower 48, some are residents

Spring – Summer – Fall

Warblers

Yellow-rumped
Warbler

May through September

Yellow-rumped and Orange-crowned winter in southern US

Yellow Warbler

Yellow Warbler
winters in Central and northern South America

Orange-crowned Warbler

Gulls

Glaucous-winged Gull

Herring Gull

Mew Gull

Late March through November
Winters along CA/OR/WA coast

Merlin

Winters in southern US south to northern South America

April through September

Bald Eagle

Year-round resident

Bird Resources

- Cornell Lab of Ornithology
 - ebird
 - All About Birds
 - Project FeederWatch
 - Great Backyard Bird Count (February)
- Anchorage Audubon Birds of Winter checklist
- Science for Alaska Lecture Series- Frosty Feathers: Avian Tales of Winter Survival (available on iTunes U)